

Success Tips for College

- # Work hard. Go to class. Have fun. Ask for help.
- # Push yourself to explore and discover new ideas and meet new people.
- # Find key people on campus in financial aid, bursar office, academic and student support. Be more than a face in the crowd. Introduce yourself. Build your network of support and friendship.
- # Join things. Clubs, student activities, study circles, sports. Push yourself to get involved. Have fun.
- # Find mentors. Ask for help and advice...with classes, socially, emotionally, personally. Help is there. Ask for it.
- # Use office hours with professors.
- # Build a routine with blocks of study and reading time. Allow more study time than you expect. Be disciplined with your time.
- # Don't get discouraged when you have a tough class and find yourself struggling, or when you feel like everything is new. Everyone struggles at some point in college, and freshman year is often the toughest. This is normal! ASK FOR HELP. REACH OUT TO OTHERS. YOU ARE NOT ALONE.
- # Remember what got you here. Remember your assets and strengths. YOU ARE SUPPOSED TO BE HERE!
